

Planning Your Move to North Dakota

North Dakota with its booming economy and friendly, hardworking people is a great place to live, work, and play. Jobs are plentiful across the state in a variety of industries. It is important to have a plan in place as you locate employment in North Dakota. Here are a few ideas on how to prepare:

1. Search for jobs by visiting Job Service North Dakota's job listing. Make contact with ND Relocation Program staff. They can assist you during your job search.
2. Secure housing or a place to stay before you come to North Dakota. To start your search, visit the make a home page or the ND Tourism Hotel/Motel Listing.
3. Schedule your interviews in advance. Employers are very busy and some may not be available for walk-in interviews.
4. When you arrive in North Dakota, your nearest local Job Service North Dakota Resource Center is a great place to continue your job search activities.
5. Be persistent in your job search. Because employers are busy with their work and their job openings, it can be helpful to follow up on those applications and interviews with an email or phone call.
6. Take advantage of Job Fairs. Job Fairs allow job seekers access to a number of employers with the possibility for on the spot job interviews.
7. We welcome you and your family to North Dakota. Prepare for childcare and school to ease the move for everyone.
8. Have reliable transportation. We do have bus and Amtrak services in North Dakota, but they may not be able to meet all of your transportation needs.

Take advantage of what North Dakota has to offer. Just like any vacation, you should plan your trip in advance for smooth sailing and peace of mind. Have a solid plan in place prior to taking the leap. If you choose to move to our great state, congratulations and welcome to North Dakota! You will not be disappointed in your decision.
